

PETERSON'S MARTIAL ARTS AND BOLIARD'S MARTIAL SCIENCE

PRESENT:

SAMURAI POWER CHAIN

PRACTICAL MODERN DAY NO - NONSENSE DEFENSE

万
力
鎖

WHAT: A one day, two hour, hands-on, no experience necessary introductory Sampler on Manrikigusari - the Samurai power chain. In Japanese, Man means "10,000", Riki means "power", and Kusari means "chain". This sampler will focus on learning the very specialized long handle style Manrikigusari (Dai). Learn how to use this powerful companion weapon of the Samurai as a modern day self defense tool. This introductory Sampler will focus on proper gripping, postures, basic striking, grappling applications, hidden Hyung relations, fundamental engagement, and much more. Ideal for women, men, senior citizens, law enforcement & security personnel.

WHO: ANYONE & EVERYONE is invited to participate in the Sampler. Martial Arts experience not required.

WHEN: Saturday, August 28, 2010. 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

WHERE: Peterson's Central Winds Martial Arts 709 1225 W. Main St. Leesburg, Fl. 34748
Contact 352-874-6615 It is vital that you come early to prepare.

FEE: $40.00 per person

REGISTRATION: Sign up now! Advance registration please. Call or stop in to register at Peterson's Central Winds Martial Arts.

WEAR: Please wear loose fitting, clean, comfortable, regular street clothes or uniform.

INSTRUCTOR: This course will be professionally conducted by Grand Master Greg Boliard who was awarded the rank of 9th Dan in September of 2010. Greg Boliard is a 41 year career martial arts veteran of the Moo Duk Kwan Tang Soo Do, who is specially trained in traditional weaponry. In 1996 Greg Boliard received his Shidojin (license to teach) from John Viol Shihan, a teaching certificate recognized only in Japan. Grand Master Greg Boliard continues to develop the Korean Art of Moo Duk Kwan Tang Soo Do to add to the assurance that his students receive only the highest quality of education.